

Excursion to Quarantine Beach 13 February 2022
By Genevieve Slattery

We enjoyed lovely weather as we set off from the Pond on Sunday afternoon. A fleet of 10 yachts from the Squadron anchored in the bay, and forty sailors came ashore to the beach.

Many thanks to JT who was a very generous RIB master!

The Boiler House at Quarantine Station was very relaxing and a popular choice of venue.

It was nice to see Cruising friends and guests gathering once again for this most popular luncheon which was followed by a leisurely sail home.

A quick call to Joyce Warn brought her out on to her verandah, and she waved a blue towel at the gathering.

John Hancox snapped this handsome water dragon using an iPhone 13 Pro telephoto lens.
What amazing high resolution!
